

2010 ACS meeting, San Francisco – YCC/CUR Symposium

Monday Afternoon , March 22, 2010
Moscone Center, Room 125 North

Program & Participants

Starting a Successful Research Program at a Predominantly Undergraduate Institution

Part 1

1:00-1:05	Opening remarks	Mel Druelinger/Silvia Ronco
1:05-1:15	What is undergraduate research and why do research at a predominately undergraduate institution?	Mitch Malachowski
1:15-1:25	What types of research should a new faculty member pursue?	Gerald Van Hecke
1:25-1:40	Selection of and working with undergraduates	Gerald Van Hecke
1:40-1:55	Orchestrating the undergraduate research experience	Allen Schoffstall
1:55-2:10	Initiating and sustaining a research program at a predominantly undergraduate institution: A new faculty perspective	Krisanu Bandyopadhyay
2:10-2:25	Art and necessity of gaining internal support from institutional administrators	Mel Druelinger
2:25-2:40	Questions and open panel discussion
2:40-3:05	Break

Part 2

Grantsmanship

3:05-3:25	Funding Opportunities at Research Corporation for Science Advancement	Silvia Ronco
3:25-3:45	New Directions of the Petroleum Research Fund	Jeff Smiley
3:45-4:05	Funding opportunities at the NSF for faculty to initiate and sustain a research program involving undergraduates	Bert Holmes
4:05-4:25	Writing more competitive grant proposals	Casey Londergan
4:25-4:45	Questions and open panel discussion

Facilitators

Mel Druelinger	Professor of Chemistry	Colorado State U.-Pueblo	mel.druelinger@colostate-pueblo.edu
	Director, Office of Research & Sponsored Programs
Silvia Ronco	Program Officer	Research Corporation	sronco@rescorp.org
Krisanu Bandyopadhyay	Asst. Professor	University of Michigan-Dearborn	krisanu@umd.umich.edu
Bert Holmes	Program Director	National Science Foundation	bholmes@nsf.gov
Casey Londergan	Assistant Professor	Haverford College	clonderg@haverford.edu
Mitch Malachowski	Professor of Chemistry	University of San Diego	malachow@sandiego.edu
Allen Schoffstall	Professor of Chemistry	University of Colorado - Colorado Springs	amschoff@uccs.edu
Jeff Smiley	Program Officer	Petroleum Research Fund	j_smiley@acs.org
Gerald Van Hecke	Professor of Chemistry	Harvey Mudd College	gerald_vanhecke@hmc.edu